Materials:

- ✓ Appliquéd cotton placemat (see note)
- ✓ 5/8" dowel rod cut to width of placemat
- ✓ Two 1" lucite rings
- ✓ Two 7/8" flat buttons
- ✓ About 90' jute twine (or heavy yarn of your choice)
- ✓ Crochet hook size H
- ✓ Hot glue gun and glue
- ✓ One yd. 3" ribbon
- ✓ Saw
- ✓ Optional: assorted buttons

Pattern Note: If you can't find an appliquéd placemat that goes with your decor, you can use a plain placemat and decorate with purchased appliqués, buttons, ribbons, etc. Or you could appliqué with an assortment of granny squares, doilies, patches, etc.

Hanger

Row 1: With jute or yarn, sc around the dowel rod until the width of the dowel covered with sc matches the top width of the placemat; ch 1, turn.

Row 2: Sc in each sc across. Fasten off. Trim dowel rod with saw to extend about 1/2" on either side of the sc. Using hot glue, attach the front top of the placemat to the back of the crocheted piece, below the dowel rod.

Hanging Cord

With jute or yarn, work 12 sc around the first of the 1" lucite rings; join with a sl st to the first sc; ch 50 (or length desired), work 12 sc around the second lucite ring; join with a sl st to the first sc on the second ring; sl st in each of the 50 ch's; join with a sl st to the last sc on the first lucite ring. Fasten off. Hot glue each of the rings to a side of the hanger as shown. Hot glue a 7/8" button to the center of each ring.

Optional: Hot glue assorted buttons to the placemat.

Finishing

Make a loop in the center of the hanging cord as shown; tie securely with a piece of jute or yarn. Tie the ribbon into a bow and hot glue to loop as shown. Trim ribbon ends.

Happy Crocheting!
